

The Mouse That Roared

Saturday, November 14

7:30 p.m. - UHS Gymnasium

Experience an evening of fun and laughter this November. The Uniontown High School fall play is a comedy, "The Mouse That Roared," which was adapted by Christopher Sergel from the book by Leonard Wibberley. The small country of Grand Fenwick, ruled by Gloriana the Twelfth, is having economic problems. In order to solve these problems, they declare war on the United States hoping to lose so America will rehabilitate them financially. Unfortunately, the "war" does not progress as planned. The cast of twenty-six includes all the members of the high school drama classes along with some of the junior high drama students. It is directed by Myrna Wildshuetz, high school drama coach, with assistance from Julie Weyer, junior high school drama teacher.

He is dressed like the other soldiers, but perhaps more elaborately... this sounds like...
Will Tatum

A watchful U.S. Army officer who somehow radiates suspicion... His name is...
General Snippet

The General's daughters are young, but stern faced, Wacs... this can only be...
Jill and Debbie

He has a mass of hair, wears thick glasses, and his side pockets are bulging... this must be...
Professor Kokintz

BREAK A LEG!
